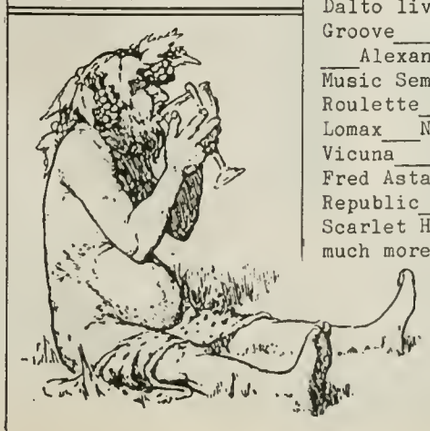
SUMMER

WBAI NEEDS

Headphones of any kind but Sennheiser HD-414's would be best. Working typewriters or typewriter repair, plus ribbons, white-out, correct tapes, and related materials. A carpenter. A person who can repair tape recorders. An electrician. A source for scrap paper. A word processor! A small office computer (Apple, Commodore, etc.) plus accessories like printer, disc-drive, etc. Typing paper of any size, plus envelopes. A coffee/hot water machine, recording tape, cotton squibs, single edge razor blades, staplers, scotch tape, paper clips, thumb tacks, push pins, pens, pencils, markers, postage stamps, subway tokens, easy-care plants, cat food, paper towels, toilet paper and much more than this space will allow to specify. Use your imagination! If an item is both useful and costs money, the station probably needs it.



THIS SUMMER AT WBAI

On August 6 at 9:30 WBAI begins its observation of the 38th anniversary of the devastation of Hiroshima with a complete reading, with music, of The Children of Hiroshima produced by Terry Ornstein. Other special programs in this summer of growing grass roots anti-militaristic activity are Survivors of the Peacetime Apocalypse (August 19 and 23 at 2:30); Voices of Hiroshima (August 17 at 8 PM) and The Day After Trinity (July 17 at 7PM on THE SCIENCE REPORT). And let us not forget to mention all the regular programming heard on WBAI by those who have had their ear to the ground all along: NUCLEAR ALERT with Michio Kaku (second and fourth Sundays at 5:30) and THE ENERGY HOUR with Warren Liebold (first and third Thursdays at 2:30).

In America, summer is crowned by the Fourth of July weekend. A recent Latin American visitor to New York remarked there are no Revolution Streets in this country, no Liberty Avenues or Freedom Roads. It's true that most Fourth of July commemorations stress patriotism and not our glorious revolution. However, not on WBAI, (see New Show: Revolution Rock July 15 at 4PM), chiefly in a four part series called THE BILL OF RIGHTS EDUCATION PROJECT (See July 7 Highlights for details). Other valuable programs for those who believe in eternal vigilence, even in the lazy days of summer are A CENTRAL AMERICA TEACH-IN (August 19 at 7:30); MONCADO, the story of Catro's invasion of that military base on the 30th anniversary of the beginnings of the Cuban revolution (July 26 at 7:30); and when you don't think you can take another supermarket tabloid headline about the secret diet of Princess Di, tune in on Saturdays at 9:30 PM for a dose of reality plus good music on BEHIND THE GREEN CURTAIN, from the WBAI Irish community. And you can close your computer gap knowledge regularly on the valuable science programs produced by Bob and Eileen Zalisk, but especially on July 24 at 7 PM for ARTIFICIAL INTELLIGENCE AND THE FIFTH GENERATION OF COMPUTERS.

Within the expanded summer Folio you will also find an incredible variety of entertainment as well as valuable information, or what's a summer for? Afterall, there must be ample time to rest between the necessary actions to let the blood flow slow and cool, preferable in some horizontal position in a hammock or up on Tar Beach wearing little but Sony earphones. High on the list is a four-part series of programs brought to you by THE GOLDEN AGE OF RADIO about that funny man who helped humanize radio, Steve Allen. Nowhere else on your dial will you hear these programs, which will include blasts from the past like "Funny Phone Calls" as well as some recent reminiscences with Allen himself.

As for the rest, so rich is the stew, so varied and unusual, that we must make a game of it to get all the programs in: Find within the Folio program listings for the following: Elvis Costello___Frederica von Stade___Jorge Dalto live___British Music Hall___Inner Groove___Tunnel Hum___Audioerocism?-___Alexander Blachley___"Master Class"___New Music Seminar___John Martyn___From Roulette___Return of NIGHTVOICES___Stan Lomax___Nicolasa Mohr___Cecilia Vicuna___Laurie Colwin___John Barth___"You, Fred Astaire"___"The Flower of the Republic___"Split Britches"___P.W. and the Scarlet Horsemen"___Ted Mooney___and more, much more as we rush to deadline...

REPORT TO THE LISTENER

by Phil Tymon

Typewriter Repair. The station is littered with dead dinosaur typewriters. We have geniuses here who seem to be able to keep anything running except typewriters. We don't need more typewriters, but we need someone who can get the ones we are all ready have working again. Just put your ink-stained fingers in the dial and call 279-0707.

The Marathon raised $117,425 in pledges and lasted 20½ hours beyond the planned ending. Our goal was $125,000. As of June we had received $ 67,000 or 57% of the pledged amount. If you have not yet paid your pledge, please save us the expense of mailing another bill, and send it in to: Pacifica-WBAI, PO Box 12345, Church St. Station, NY, NY 10249.

WBA/ICE is the coolest thing in town this summer. To be held in Brooklyn Height's Fulton Ferry State Park at the foot of the Brooklyn Bridge on July 30 and 31, WBA/ICE is a carnival, a folk arts festival, and a street fair. Listen to WBAI for more information on the WBAI international Crafts Expo. Yo won't want to miss this.

WBAI Dances. Our June 25 dance was held at the Ikranian National Home on 2nd Ave., near 10th St. Any suggestions for a permanent home, or occasional locations beyond lower Manhattan? We plan dances for July and August, so please stay tuned.

Help WBAI. If you have a business, then offer a 10% discount to WBAI subscribers. The list is growing! If you have a specific skill or an available vehicle, please let us know if we can call on you. We need donations of all sorts of things—telephone answerwing machines, beverages, audio and video equipment, plain white bond paper, etc. Have you considered a bequest to WBAI? Do you know what a bequest means? Do you have a dictionary? A lawyer?

Edit A. The "junk room" was transformed into Edit A when a mutinous crew tossed out the junk and made it into an acoustic booth worth about $25,000, parts of which were donated a while ago. Once our cannibalized scullery has a few organ implants, it will be fitted with electronics and join edits B and C, significantly increasing our production capability. Edit A is all ready fondly known as "the meat locker."

Chief Announcer. After "the move" in 1978—operations, traffic, and announcing were all telescoped into one—Bill O'Neill. Announcing will now be divided. With the hiring of Alex Paul as Chief Announcer in September, Bill will be free to concentate on just being operations and production director. What will he do with all his free time?

The Free Music Store—we're woking on it, we're working on it. Numerous delays have been mostly overcome and we really do hope to being in August or September. Probably location is PS 41, at 6th Ave. and 11th St.

WBAI Station Board added Bob Bloom to its ranks. Bob is a criminal attorney who is well known in the progressive community.

Pacifica National Board met in New York in May. A packed agenda kept the Board and its committees busy for three full days.

The item of immediate concern to WBAI was the proposal by WBAI to suspend the Pacifica levy on WBAI for six months. This would represent a bit more than $40,000 in funds which WBAI would apply directly to development (fund-raising) efforts. WBAI does not currently have a development director, due to lack of funds to hire one. About $20,000 of the money would go directly to hire and support a development director.

The Pacifica finance committee proposed, as an alternative, that a $60,000 "add-on" be made to the mortgage currently being negotiated on the KPFK building. The mortgage is already controversial and causing debate at KPFK. Unlike the $40,000 proposed by WBAI, which would be free and clear, this would be a loan, to be repaid with interest. Dick Asche, a WBAI representative to the Pacifica Board, questioned the wisdom of obligating WBAI to such a large sum. The matter was referred to Executive Committee, which referred it to the WBAI station Board for a recommendation accompanied by both a

NEVILLE STAPLES AND LYNVAL GOLDING OF FUNBOY 3, WHO WILL BE APPEARING AT THE NEW MUSIC SEMINAR

JULY 4 AT 4:00 ON AFTERNOON MUSIC: HITSVILLE, NEW YORK WITH KAREN PETERSON—THE NEW MUSIC SEMINAR. On July 5 and 6 the New Music Seminar is being held in New York City whereby DJs, consultants, programmers, promotion people and even musicians like Fun Boy Three will discuss the "new music." What is it? Not everybody knows. Even those who do know aren't sure what it is. Where is it? and Where is it going?

A second program, Highlights of the New Music Seminar, will be broadcast July 27 at 10 p.m. on EVENING MUSIC. This program will feature excerpts from the conference, including from Miles Copely of IPS Record's keynote address. How can independent labels survive while individual distributors go under? Can video replace live music? Has the crossover success of "new music" made radio less racist, or is it "business as usual?" Has "new music" already been co-opted, or does it still provide an alternative? The programs are produced by Karen peterson with Ed Haber, Peter Bochan, and others.

JULY 7 AT 2:30. THE BILL OF RIGHTS RADIO EDUCATION PROJECT, a continuing series of half-hour documentary programs that examines the Bill of Rights froma legal, historical, philosophical and ethical point of view. The programs demonstrate the difficult conflicts inherent in this important document, and the lasting relevance of our Constitutional freedoms and guarantees. The five-part series includes:

JULY 7 AT 2:30. CULTS AND THE CONSTITUTION: WHO'S ABUSING WHOM? Is the Unification Church of the Reverend Sun Myung Moon a religion or a cult? What of Scientology, and the latest crop of gurus? Are the non-traditional and often controversial recruitment methods employed by certain religious groups protected by the First Amendment's guarantee of freedom of religion? How about the taxation problem? Produced by Andrew Ross.

JULY 14 AT 2:30. TELEVISION ON TRIAL: CAMERAS IN THE COURTROOM. What effect does the presence of video cameras in courtrooms have on judges, jurors, and the witnessing public? Can this practice lead to courtroom tension, intimidation or even rioting? Produced by Richard Mahler.

JULY 21 AT 2:30. OPEN SECRETS: TECHNOLOGICAL TRANSFER, NATIONAL SECURITY AND THE FIRST AMENDMENT. The modern technological revolution has been spearheaded by a new generation of highly sophisticated machinery with a broad range of military applications. Scientists and academics insist that freedom to trade and share knowledge and data is essential to the development and maintenance of our technological prowess. How shall we decide when national security collides with the First Amendment? Produced by John Reiger.

JULY 28 AT 2:30. CRAZY AND/OR GUILTY AS CHARGED: CONSTITUTIONAL ASPECTS OF THE INSANITY AND DMINISHED CAPACITY DEFENSES. This program examines the enormous controversy over the insanity and diminished capacity defenses in light of the outrage over the John Hinckley verdict. Produced by Adi Gevins and Ginna Allison.

AUGUST 4 AT 2:30. WITHOUT DUE PROCESS: PREJUDICIAL APPLICATION OF THE BILL OF RIGHTS TO CITIZENS AND NON-CITIZENS. In spite of the words written on the Statue of Liberty, this country has witnessed wartime internment of Japanese-Americans, detention of Haitian refugees, the tactics of the INS "Operation JOBS" and other abuses directed against citizens and non-citizen residents. Produced by Ginna Allison and Adi Gevins with Michael Yoshida.

The series is co-sponsored by the Pacifica Foundation and the American Civil Liberties Union Foundation. Ira Glasser, Executive Director of the ACLU, is the prinipal advisor.

JULY 11 AT 8:30. NICOLASA MOHR, AN INTERVIEW WITH THE AUTHOR OF EL BRONX REMEMBERED, a program in two parts presented by Rosemarie Reed. Graphic artist and writer Nicolasa Morh grew up in El Barrio. Her writings are, in her words, "a microcosm of the larger global human concern—people living in struggle everywhere but finding in their struggles joy, a sense of humor and the will to survive."

"In the back of the apartment, where the children played they could hear their mother singing a familiar song. It was about a beautiful island where the tall green palm trees swayed under a golden sky and the flowers were always in bloom." "A Very Special Pet" from El Bronx Remembered.

Part Two of El Bronx Remembered will be heard August 15 at 9:30.

STEVE ALLEN, AUTHOR OF FUNNY PEOPLE AND MORE FUNNY PEOPLE, PUBLISHED BY STIEN AND DAY

JULY 9 AND JULY 11. TWO STEVE ALLEN SPECIALS. Interview plus radio excerpts and recordings. Presented by Jack Shugg and Max Schmid. JULY 15 AT 4:00. REVOLUTION ROCK. "When the mode of the music changes. . ."

If you think the protest songs faded with the Sixties, you're in for a surprise. Along with Ronald Reagan and the MX, the 1980's have also given rise to some outspoken, intelligent (that's right) rock 'n roll to counter the above-named untintelligent signs of our times.

". . . The walls of the city shake."

REVOLUTION ROCK is a new program dedicated to bringing the listener the best of the new British, American and European political rock 'n roll. (And you can dance to it too.) Produced by Carolyn Borger.

FREDERICA VON STADE. MEZZO-SOPRANO

JULY 15 AT 10:00. EVENING MUSIC: MASTER CLASS, A NEW MUSIC PROGRAM. Long-time WBAI music producer Manya will be bringing us a once-a-month master class with leading opera singers as they talk about their roles and musical problems inherent within them. This Friday, FREDERICA VON STADE will lead us through Quinquin's thoughts and actions in this evening's assignment: Octavian from Richard Strauss' Der Rosenkavalier. By the process of interview and musical example, Manya and her luminous guests will provide inspiration and education to listeners who sing or are merely interested in just how celestial music is made.

JULY 26 AT 7:30. MONCADA, A CUBA SPECIAL.

"And that is how it really began: a man said No! to a monster.

At first [Fidel Castro] sued in the courts. He submitted a brief that showed the Batista gang had violated laws. Of course the brief was thrown out. And then he began to see it. The only real politics possible for honest men in the old Cuba was the politics of the gun, the politics of the guerrilla. The revolution was the only "politics" for an honest man. The very next year, 1953, on the 26th of July, Fidel led the raid on Moncada."

Listen, Yankee by C. Wright Mills
Ballentine Books, page 40

This program, produced by WBAI's International Affairs Department, will examine Cuba thirty years after the attack on the Moncada Military Garrison by the 26 of July Movement, an event which led to the ouster of Batista and a new chapter in Cuba's history.

JULY 27 AT 9:00. MORNING MUSIC: THE INNER GROOVE presented by Tracey Sterne. Background notes on classical record-making, and the music itself. Two programs will be featured this summer, the first featuring the music of William Bolcom, American composer and pianist. Piano rags, original compositions, American popular songs. With Joan Morris and others. On August 24 at 9:00 a.m. Tracey Sterne will explore the early music scene. Her guest will be Alexander Blachly, director of Pomerium Musices.

DOUG FULTON

TERESA STERNE, NONESUCH DIRECTOR WITH WILLIAM BOLCOM, COMPOSER PIANIST

MAGIC TIME ON THE ROAD will be appearing in person at the WBAI Summer Crafts Fair July 30 and 31. There will be two live shows each day featuring Joyce West, Martha Dodge, Shellen Lubin, Kathy Ann Kersey, and other Magic Time friends.

Check with the WBAI switchboard (279-0707) between 11 and 6 Monday through Friday, the week of July 25 for exact performance times.

JULY 31 AT 3:00. TUNNEL HUM, USA. The last Sunday in July will feature a coast-to-coast hum-along created and directed by Bonnie Barnett, composer and musician. "I will be producing a live radio event which will get the whole country singing the same song. . . live from San Francisco and New York." Can both coasts keep the same tune and even perhaps strike some harmonies? As Bonnie Barnett has learned from her previous HUMS in 1981 and 1982, this and much more is possible. For variety, the hour's hum will feature interviews with the composer and participants.

"This poem was written by Thomas Merton and it's a groovey poem and it really says a lot to me."

Lenny Bruce

My name is Adolf Eichmann.
The Jews came every day to vat they thought vould be fun in the showers.
The moters vere quite ingenious.
They vould take the children and hide them in budles of clothing.
Ve found the children,
scrubbed them,
put them in the chambers,
and sealed them in.
I vatched through the portholes
as they would doven and chant,
"Hey, mein Liebe, heyyy."
Ve took off their clean Jewish love-rings, removed their teeth and hair—
for strategic defense.
I made soap out of all of them;
and they hung me,
in full view of the prison yard.
People say,
"Adolf Eichmann should have been hung!"
Nein.
Nein,m if you recognize the whoredom
in all of you,
that you would have done the same,
if you dared know yourselves.
My defense?
I vas a soldeir.
People laugh,
"Ha, ha! This is no defense, that you are a soldier."
This is ttite.
I vas a soldier,
a good soldier.
I saw the end of a conscientious day's effort.
I saw all the work that I did.
I, Adolf Eichmann,
vatched thrugh the portholes.
I saw every Jew burned
und tutned into soap.
Do you people think yourselves better because you burned your enemies at long distances with missiles?
Without ever seeing what you'd done to them?
Hiroshima . . . Auf Wiedersehen . . .

U.S. ARMY PHOTOGRAPH

AUGUST 9 AT 2:30. SURVIVORS OF THE PEACETIME APOCALYPSE, a program in two parts. Since the first atomic test, an astonishing 250,000 military personnel have watched the explosions, swum in the water and played along the beaches of Eniwetok and the Bikini Atolls, even on the day of the blast. At the Nevada test site, men were placed within a few miles of ground zero and ordered to perform combat maneuvers through ground zero. Was the government using these men as guinea pigs? Did the Department of Defense and the Atmoc Energy Commission suppress scientific information while underestimating the levels of atmospheric radiation? Should the government compensate those veterans for illnesses they believe are radiation related? The programs, in two parts, to be broadcast August 9 at 2:30 and again on the 23rd at the same time, are produced by Ellen Kalmuk and Drusilla Robertson with funds from NPR—SPDF.

HIGHLIGHTS

JULY 15 AT 7:30. A CENTRAL AMERICAN CALL-IN SPECIAL. "So we Cuban revolutionaries don't worry much about counterrevolution inside Cuba. What we do worry about—and it's making us do many of the things we are doing—is you. We think the United States is somehow going to try to stop our revolution, directly or indirectly. As we see it, the only possibly effective counterrevolutionary force is the United States of America. We're not afraid of this, we're not afraid of anything, but we do know that we have to prepare well to meet it. When we shout 'My country or my death!' we mean just that—and we are shouting it to your Yankee Government and corporations because that's the real counterrevolutionary force against us.

"But again, we say to you—if we're wrong about this —prove it to us; look into it; look into it before it is too late for us all. In the meantime, we've your own history to go on and we'll stick to that. Forget the old history we've already told you about. Think about only yesterday and today:

Your Government is protecting in the U.S.A. war criminals from the old Batista regime. Probably your CIA is recruiting some of them as agents. At least, your Government is providing safe refuge for them while they plot to harass our work and quite possibly invade us. You have them "testify" before your Congressional committee. Planes have flown from your territory to Cuba, some of them piloted by U.S. citizens, to inflict damage on our properties and our citizens. They've burned our refineries and can fields. You've been arming neighboring countries, like Haiti, but you won't sell us arms. You've tried to stop us from buying arms in Europe, as well as farm machinery.

"Your government continuously threatens to choke off our economy. Yankee oil companies have refused to refine oil that we Cubans have bought and which we own; it is an attempt to stop our economy. Your Government cut the quota for Cuban sugar in an effort to do just that. You won't even sell us small planes to dust our crops; you've held up export licenses for tractors and farm machinery. Shipments of our fruit and vegetable industry have been harassed in U.S ports, and not inspected. You've destroyed our U.S.-Cuban tourist trade with your propaganda.

"... All this, it seems clear to us, is attempted intervention into our Cuban affairs. It is against the Charter of the United Nations. It is an imperialist attitude from beginning to end. But more than that, in our view, it is an attempted counterrevolution against us."

DRAMA & LITERATURE PROGRAMS AT WBAI

by Pat Rich

The summer is here to sit back, relax, enjoy the sun, maybe catch up on reading, and certainly to tune into creative radio. WBAI is equipped to lend a hand in your summer plans. Included in this special two-month Folio are listings for a great variety of programs, many of which come from the station's Drama & Literature Department. Especially enthusiastic about this summer's offerings is Rick Harris, a staff member who coordinates Drama & Literature (D&L) programming at WBAI. He explained that most of the programs in D&L are produced at the station itself, or are taped around the city at performances. Without the skills and hard work of key volunteers in this department, the programs would never be aired at all, he said. Beyond making sure the shows are ready to air, Harris involves himself with work in the archieves, with distribution, funding, and making plans for future shows. The product of all this effort is programming which promises to be diverse, provocative, and, as always, entertaining.

The driving force behind the D&L group is an interest in covering the local arts and culture through presentations of live drama, comedy, vintage radio, readings from books, poetry works, and much more. Harris recalls when the station had a very different approach towards arts programming. In 1962, for example, when Harris began to listen to WBAI, the station looked to Britain and the BBC for many of these programs. While these BBC broadcasts were supported by many of the listeners, the station began to feel itself as being too "upscale." Gradually, and by the time Harris joined WBAI eight years ago, the station lost much of its "English accent" and continued to turn to more local production and coverage Because of Harris' background in literature (he had earned a doctorate in English) he volunteered intending to learn as much as he could about D&L. "I knew nothing about radio before 1975," he said "besides being an interested listener." He credits the experience he received as a volunteer to leading to the full-time staff position he now holds. He stressed that anyone interested in learning about radio can volunteer and will be trained. The types of shows scheduled for the next few months reflect the work of these very volunteers, and merit your ears' attention.

On Saturday mornings is the program The Golden Age of Radio, vintage radio with Jack Shugg and Max Schmid. Most of the shows come from the producers' own collections as well as items from various collector swaps they make. They play shows of suspense, drama and comedy from days gone by. Consider tuning in one Saturday morning at 8:30 with the possibility of sharing your morning coffee with Jack Benny and company. (With this heat wave, make that an iced coffee!). On Wednesdays at 3:30 through July and August will be Magic Time, a progam for "all young people," and includes story readings, puzzles, games and improvisation. The show is produced by Joyce West and Martha Dodge. A once-a-month pandemonium is created by Citizen Kafka, who shares his view of comedy, musical parody, your least likely commercials, and, of course, satire on radio itself. The show is a mix of tapes, sometimes segmented with live phone-in convesations between the listeners and Citizen himself, Citizen Kafka is slated for Tuesday, July 25 at 8:30 p.m. and August 29 at 9:00 p.m. John Fiske goes out each week to record poetry readings at St. Marks on the Bowery and selectgs the highlights which play on the program The Poetry Project. This show continues every other Friday night at 8:30. On Mondays at 3:30 p.m. is A Moveable Feast produced by Tom Vitale. This program features interviews and readings with contemporary writers. Prepare yourself for the August 15th Moveable Feast with Bob and Subgenius, an organization based in Texas which explores American commercialism through a humorous perspective. Bob will read from his book Lunatic Process for the Coming Weird Times. These are just a small sampling of the dozens of programs produced by the D&L department for the months to come. Be near your wireless, and listen often.

Rick Harris' work doesn't halt at the point of the show being broadcast. He tries to get the best of the shows distributed through networks like the National Federation of Community Broadcasters in Washington, DC, or the Pacfica Radio Foundation in Los Angeles, California. These types of shows give credence to funders who are approached by Harris and the staff to underwrite future projects.

Drama and Literature programming is shaped up to give listeners good choices in the many choices of summer activities ahead. With revolving fans, sunburn antidotes, and cold beverages nearby, keep this summer's Folio on hand to plan for very special radio programs. Happy listening.

AN INTERVIEW WITH TIM FRASCA

by Barrie Gellis

Tim Frasca and Marc Cooper, of Pacifica Radio News, received the prestigious 1982 Sidney Hillman Foundation Prize award for their coverage of the 1982 elections in El Salvador. Marc Cooper, of LA, went to Chile and worked as a translator for the Popular Unity Government under Allende. He left Chile during the 1973 coup, only to go to Argentina and flee during the 1975 coup. Eventually returning to LA he worked for Pacifica, KPFK. Tim Frasca, born in Ohio, moved to Washington, DC in 1968 to attend Washington University, and has lived there ever since. In 1977 he began intermittent work for Pacifica's DC station, and in 1979 joined the News Bureau. Cooper travelled to El Salvador to cover the elections and sent reports via satellite to Frasca, who then compiled the information with other sources, to create their coverage.

Concerning the differences between Pacifica's reportage of the elections, and that of the general media, Frasca says that the American public was "dazzled by the concept of an election without understanding what an election represents in a country like El Salvador. The media glossed over certain salient facts, such as, if you fail to vote you won't get your ID stamped that you voted, and if a death squad found you with your ID not stamped, you may as well kiss your rear good bye."

Frasca claims that the elections were used "to consolidate U.S. support for the war. The Administration says El Salvador is a democratic country, despite the fact that hundreds of thousands of people were slaughtered. Whereas, Nicaragua is a dictatorship because they haven't had elections yet. On this basis it appeals to people to sustain aggression against Nicaragua.

"The media glossed over the fact that hundreds of people were slaughtered each week and thrown into the street. You can't have free elections with death squads roaming around unhindered. In this sense, the elections were a joke. Six parties ran. The Christian Democrats were the most reform-minded, and they were already in power. The others were further on the right."

Officially, people on the left were allowed to participate in the elections. In 1980, President Duarte proposed a dialogue between all contending political forces. As Frasca tells it, "In response, the top leaders on the left met in San Salvador to prepare their negotiations. The army kidnapped the top six leaders, took them to the side of the road, and tortured and murdered them."

The message was clear. "Any leftist party member or guerrilla who would openly present him or herself for elections may as well jump off the nearest cliff. It would be a lot faster and probably les painful."

Previous winners of the Sidney Hillman Award include Edward R. Murrow, Eric Severeid, Bill Moyers, Carl Bernstein and Bob Woodward.

REPORT FROM THE LISTENER

1. KARP'S RED HERRING

June 5, 1983
Folio Editor:

Please let me respond to an unfair accusation about me by Mr. Karpp in the June issue.

A common demagogic tactic that blindly tries to negate distasteful facts is to disparage the character of those who dislike those facts when presented. Thus, Pres. Reagan, an expert in this vile tactic, dubbed the million of us anti-nuclear war people who thronged Central Park a year ago as "Soviet dupes." Thus, Mr. Karpp calls me an anti-Semite because I dared present facts about Israel's behavior. I do not equate Israel's conduct with anti-Semitism, even if he does. Some facts are in order to justify my condemnation.

Begin has said that there is no such land as Palestine, nor are there a Palestinian people. My elementary geography book in 1930 indicated such a place and a people. Worse, Begin said, "The killing of one Palestinian is of no consequence, but their total elimination is the final solution." That's the phrase used by Hitler in his plan for Jewish genocide, and to which I referred in my April letter.

Israel invaded Lebanon to "bring peace to the Galilee." After the slaughter of several thousands, including innocent women and children (seen only partially in our compliant mass media), and the detention of tens of thousands more, and of people living under Israel guns and terror in occupied parts of Lebanon, such as Tyre and Sidon, Israel is still bringing peace, after promising to go no more than 25 kilometers into that torn land. And after that phony peace engineered now with a "bashful and reluctant U.S." (my phrase), Israel still wants to keep an army there.

Indeed, Israel is tied to U.S. "vital interests", (the code word for imperialism and oppression to guarantee super-profits). Israel tried out advanced U.S. weapons, such as the new implosive bombs (which blow up entire buildings), and used napalm of Vietnam horror. Israel is an active partner in supplying arms to every oppressive regime in Central America, where people are struggling against imperialist America—Honduras, Guatemala and El Salvador; and in Nicaragua, Sandinistas, having gotten rid of their infamous Somoza, now have to contend with arms from Israel and its Siamese twin, the U.S.

What shall we say of Israel's alliance, military and economic, with the apartheid regime, which is conducting a daily holocaust (excuse me—that word is reserved for Jews only, who were victims of genocide in WWII) in that nation? There is ample evidence that Israel built the South African government an atom bomb and that it "stole" uranium from the U.S. for this and other purposes. Yet the Rosenbergs were electrocuted because they supposedly were traitors. How does uranium disappear? Isn't there some kind of collusion?

Do these unpleasant facts make me, or anyone who expresses them, anti-Semitic? Let me conclude by saying I, a non-Jew, work in anti-war, anti-nuclear, pro-peace groups, and that a majority of them are Jews. Obviously there are Jews whose views are very much based on facts, and others who smear others with tactics as offensive as those of any rabid demagogue history has dredged up.

Sincerely yours,
Beatrice Barbara Barbieri
Flushing

PS: Perhaps Mr. Karp ought to change the position of the second and third letters of his name.

2. ANSWERING ISRAEL

June 5, 1983
To the Folio Editor:

Today is the first anniversary of Israel's invasion of Lebanon, and the 16th one of the six-day war. Genuine concern of Israel's security and its involvement in these events can be transformed into hysteria and chauvinism. The letters of Paul Sheridan, Mark Berghash, and Ed Feuerstein tend to bear out this grim diagnosis.

Paul Sheridan wants to know why Pacifica correspondent Mark Garfield does not identify his beat, Nicosia, as being located on Cyprus. The answer is obvious. Amos Volin does not identify Tel Aviv as being located in Israel, nor does Michael Luders identify West Berlin as being in West Germany. Major cities need not be identified with the country in which they are located.

Mark Berghash claims to be a supporter of Peace Now. He is doing that cause an injustice by repeating standard right-wing canards about WBAI with no documentation. Did the left abandon Israel when Israel proved itself strong? The USSR supported Israel until the mid-1950s. Opposition to Israel's policies by the left has to do with the use to which various Israeli governments have put Israel's "strength," not with the existence of that strength per se.

Does Robert Knight "spit the sound (of Israel's name) like a cobra? No, more like a drone bee. He is the most unemotive news anchor WBAI has had in years, with an extremely smooth delivery.

Finally, consider Ed Feuerstein's exegesis on alleged biases in certain news items. Concerning the item mentioning the use of an Uzi machine gun in an attack on gays, it's logical that the specific weapon used, when known, would be reported. It is reported in all newsworthy items on WBAI (e.g., what kind of death-dealing helicopter the U.S. sends to El Salvador). Israeli-made weapons are not singled out. The WBAI news is far more revealing on all topics than the major media.

Secondly, on the Hunter College affair: the news feeds made it clear that the leading force in the student body opposing the expression of the pro-PLO viewpoint was the Hillel Organization. As a former two-term vice-president of the Queens College Hillel, I can attest that Hillel, publically known as a B'nai B'rith subsidiary, is ideologically Zionist and seeks to disseminate information favorable to Israel. B'nai B'rith itself is an endorser of Zionism, so what is wrong with headlining the report, "Zionism and Censorship at Hunter College"?

I have no personal gripe with Messrs. Sheridan, Berghash and Feuerstein. On many issues we would find ourselves on the same side. However, the manner in which they criticize WBAI invites skepticism of the integrity of their motives. I implore them to think things over and not to succumb to the hysteria that paralyzes the quest for genuine Israeli-Palestinian rapprochement.

Sincerely,
Sheldon Ranz

3. ISRAEL: FACING FACTS

June 6, 1983
To the Folio Editor:

Those two letter-writers on Israel (June Folio) huff and puff, twist and turn, and hate and breathe the bearer of bad news (Robert Knight) in desperate efforts not to face facts.

Some of the unfaced facts are as follows: on June 6, 1982 Israel invaded Lebanon and for 9 weeks, using American-made planes, white phosphorus and cluster bombs, tanks and artillery, razed towns and cities to the ground, along with their populations.

According to Israeli Tank Commander Eli Geva, in one month alone, in one city alone (Beirut), more children were killed than during 30 years in Israel. Colonel Geva asked to be relieved of his command and finally was.

The above information plus other items such as seeing Lebanese hospitals in ruins and Palestinian refugee camps, which had housed many thousands, completely bombed-out, comes from a book by Jacobo Timerman, a distinguished Israeli journalist who toured Lebanon after the invasion as a guest of army brass. He kept a diary which became The Longest War, published here by Knopf.

In it he describes a series of "firsts:"

- "The first time Israel had mounted a screen of provocation to justify a war."
- "The first time the Air Force attacked 'open cities' with no anti-aircraft defenses or air force..."

- "The first time reporters, using binoculars, witnessed systematic destruction of three great cities: Tyre, Sidon and Damur..."
- "The first time soldiers returned... stunned at seeing masses of civilians killed... Lebanese women and children buried under rubble..."
- "The first time extent of damage inflicted... and number of deaths was hidden..."
- "The first time military spokesmen lied... and the press joined them..."

Timerman also speaks of sitting around with officers who blandly assure him that there can be no possible opposition by any Arab country to Israeli might. "So then," he asks, "Why couldn't we do what we wanted without destroying cities and massacring civilians?"... No answer.

Somewhere in summing up the author says, "We are victims who have created our own victims."

We American Jews could benefit from absorbing just a little of Jacobo Timerman's courage and integrity.

As for Robert Knight, he's a beacon light in a very murky area.

4. PUDGY IMPORTERS LAST WRITE

April 15, 1983
Dear Editor,

Like the character in Poe's Imp of the Perverse, each of us bears within himself the seeds of self-destruction: the whimsical urge to confess. Thus it was that I called Joe Cuomo's program to discuss the problem that, at age 33, the waistline doesn't self-correct the way it used to. I had not allowed my number of years on this planet to part my lips since 1973. But I revealed the current state of my antiquity and the concurrent state ofmy midsection, reasoning that no one listening would recognize me as anyone other than just another anonymous voice; the more so as my acquaintances find BAI quaint but not listenable.

Had I only known the astounding size and miraculous reach of your audience, I would not have disobfuscated with the truth about my age in a public forum. Five seconds after I hung up the phone my illusions of radio anonymity were devastatingly shattered! The phone rang. It was August, a friend and BUSINESS ASSOCIATE (!!!) who last invited me to sup in 1978. I only had 9 pieces of chicken (mainly breasts), being very conscious of not breaking into double figures on a first invitation. Augusta lives in Oakdale, a town almost as far out on Long Island as the Pillars of Hercules.

She says she intends to broadcast the truth of my exact age. The industry's best kept secret is out. I am ruined because of Joe's program. There is no recourse for me, at least not in this life. I will never see 34.

One good thing: Augusta invited me to dinner again. But after that, I draw the curtain on my now-miserable existence. I have even decided on the method. I die not by the sword, nor ball-and-pistol, nor drowning, drug or gas; rather, by the spoon. I shall eat myself to death.

Belatedly yours,
Chatsworth Osborne III

(Chatsworth does not listen to BAI, therefore this is yet another imposter plaguing the man—Dobie Gillis)

5. BREAKDOWN

June 6, 1983
Dear Editor:

I hear much on BAI about too little of this programming; too much of that. So... I've taken the June Folio and done a breakdown of the programming. While not totally accurate (some might argue that some programs belong in other categories), it probably does reflect a particular statistical curve. Please note that I've done a breakdown of programs only, and not the actual amount of time devoted to each.

Best,
Bill Koehnlein

6. FOLIO FEEDBACK

Dear Ms. Revland:

I received the May Folio today; last month's Folio was also received in the third week of the month. Can anything be done so that in the future Folios are received, at the latest, by the end of the first week of the month?

Sincerely yours,
Lewis Tanner

P.S. The artwork, photos, detailed program announcements, etc. of the last two Folios are superb! Keep those beautiful Folios coming, but please, on time.

Dear Mr. Tanner:

Beginning with the September issue, the Folio will go to press a full ten days before the end of the month WITH NO EXCEPTIONS. In March, upon becoming editor, I made a promise, perhaps foolishly, that henceforth the Folio would never be late again. I made my pledge because it seemed like such an obvious priority. Over the months, as we went to press later and later each month, it was always for reasons that can be defended but in the end, there is no defense for a tardy publication that includes dated material. Either the Folio is on time or it's not. Our first order of business from now on will be a reiteration of our initial pledge: an on-time program guide.

C. Revland

7. THANKS FROM CISPES

Dear WBAI Staff,

This past April 9, the Brooklyn Committee of NY CISPES held a door-to-door canvass in Brooklyn for Medical Aid for El Salvador. We feel it was an unqualified success. 38 canvassers in 4 hours collected nearly $2,000 and 1,000 petition signatures.

The success of this campaign undoubtedly rests, in part, with the members of BAI who announced the canvass on their shows as well as those who passed the word along. A number of people told us that they heard about the event through WBAI.

We are grateful to WBAI for what you have done for this particular event as well as for your continuing support over the years. Thank you.

For CISPES,
Phil Vitale

8. THANKS FROM A PRISONER

To Whom It May Concern:

I have recently been transferred from the federal prison at Otisville to the NYS prison at Ossining. WBAI has been sending me a complimentary copy of its program guide for the past 18 months or so. As I expect to be released shortly, please remove me from your mailing list. Hopefully, I will be a paid subscriber soon. Thank you much for reaching out. My former address was: Rahmien Sudan 13516-053, P.O. Box 1000, Otisville, NY 10963.
